

Lego 10248

Ferrari F40

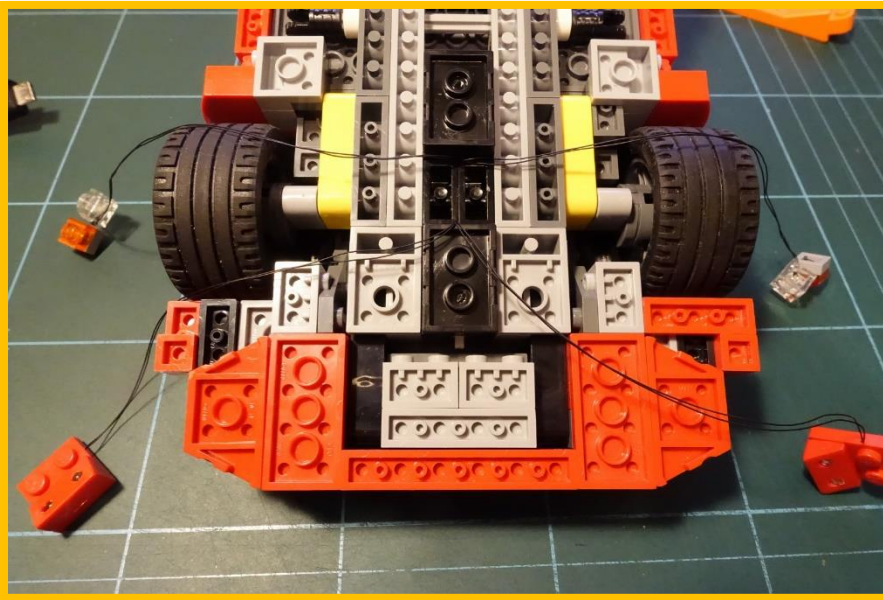

LED Installation Guide

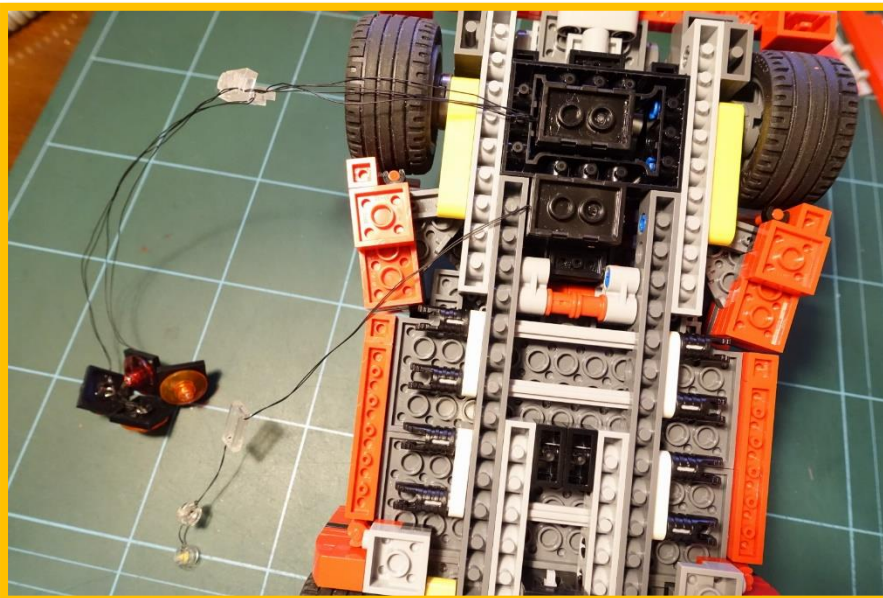

USB version go to next page. Battery Version LED have to install the battery boxes first

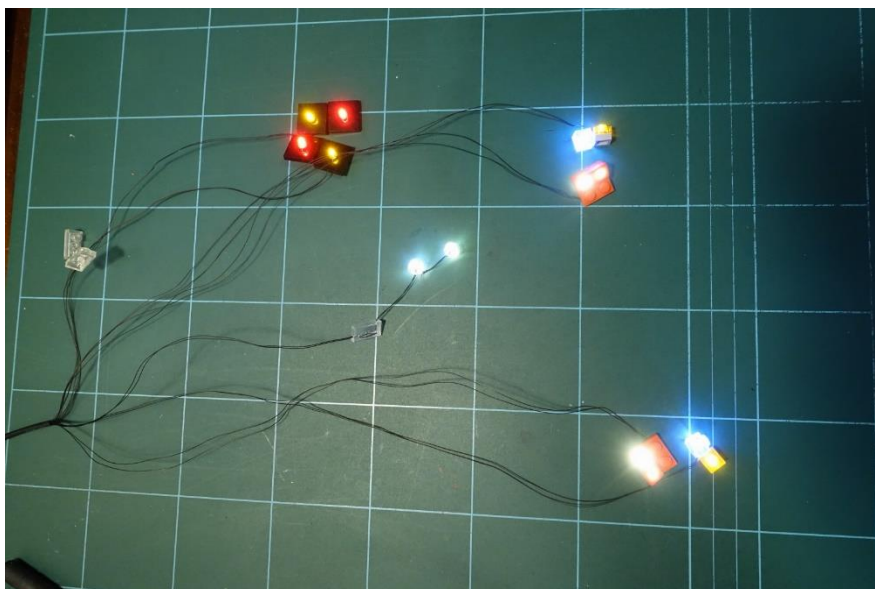

Install the front lights battery boxes at the front

Install the room light and rear lights battery boxes at the back

Before the installation, plug in and test all lights first

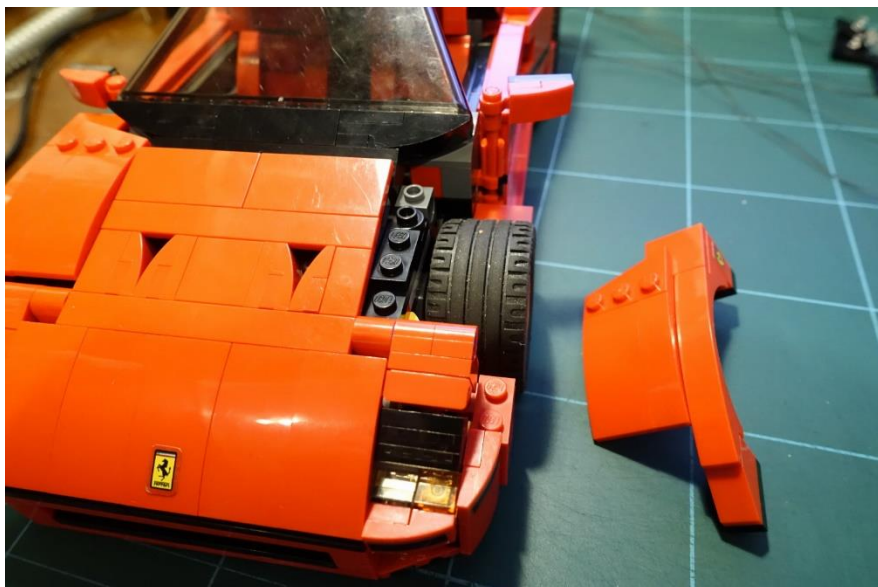

Identify left and right side front light

Take out the wheel cover

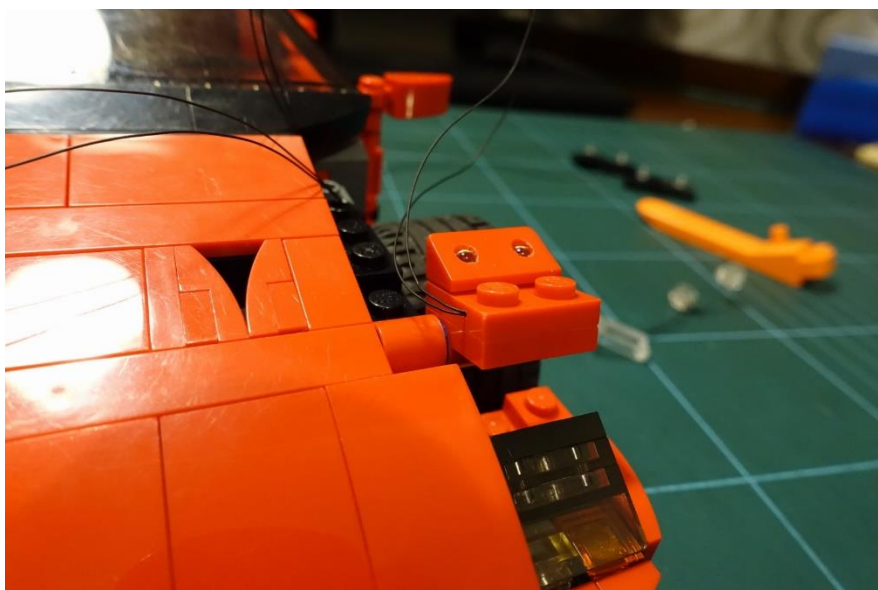

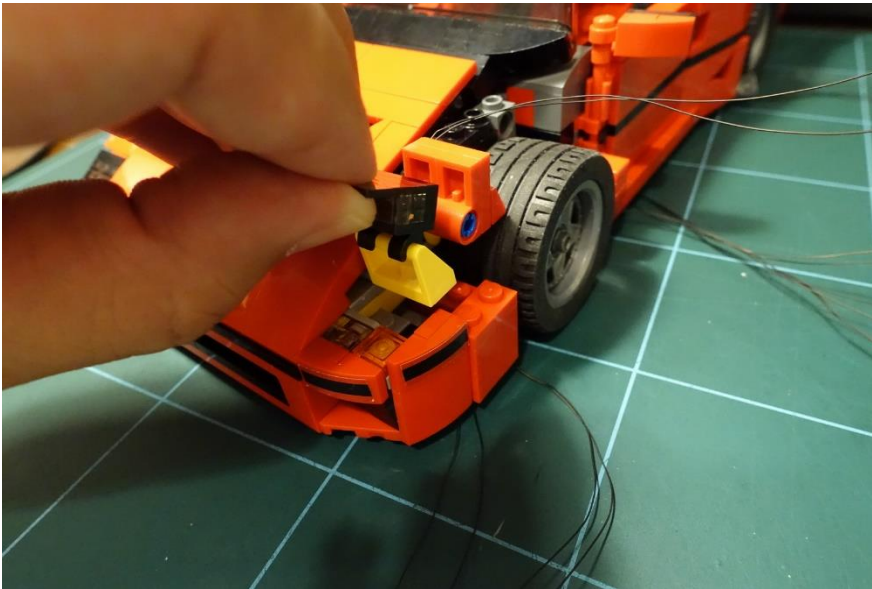

Remove the original popup light

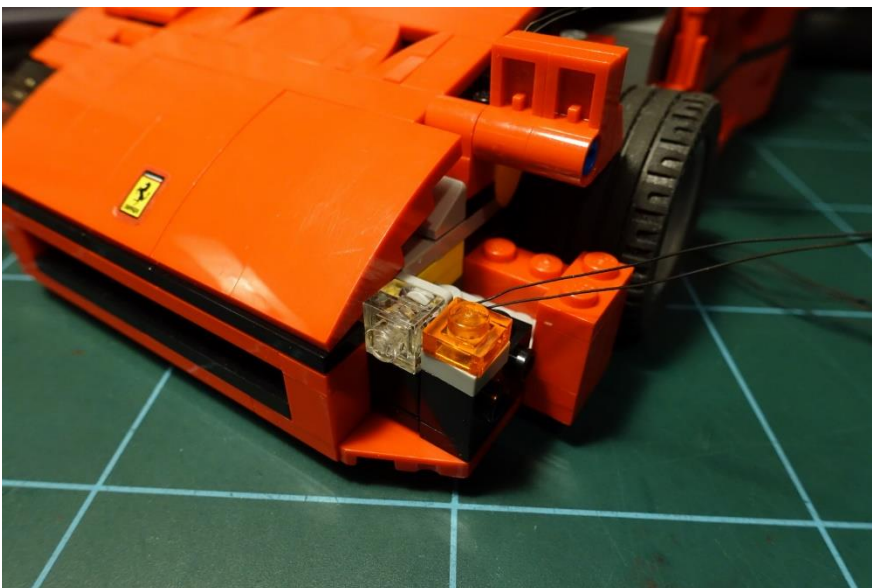

Replace with LED parts

Take out the light cover and some other parts

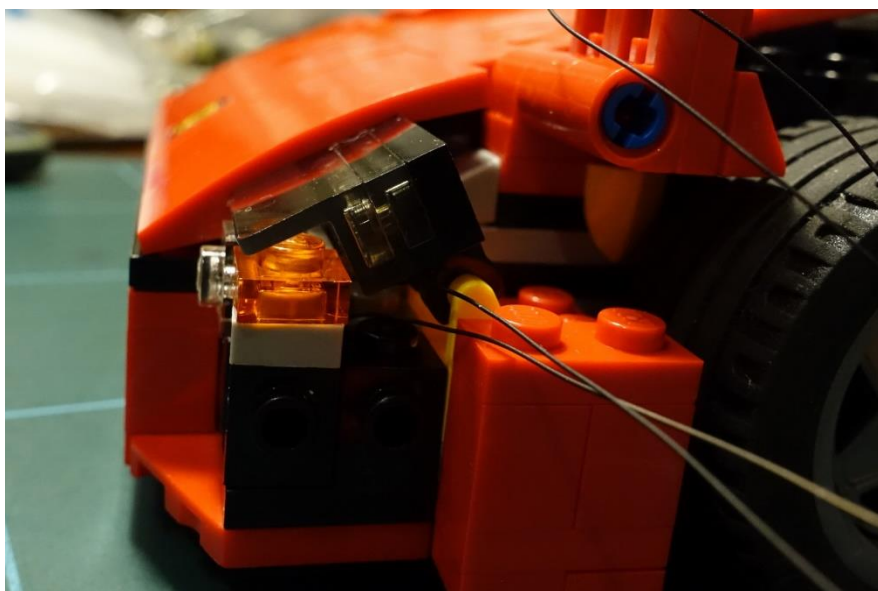

Replace the front lights with LED parts

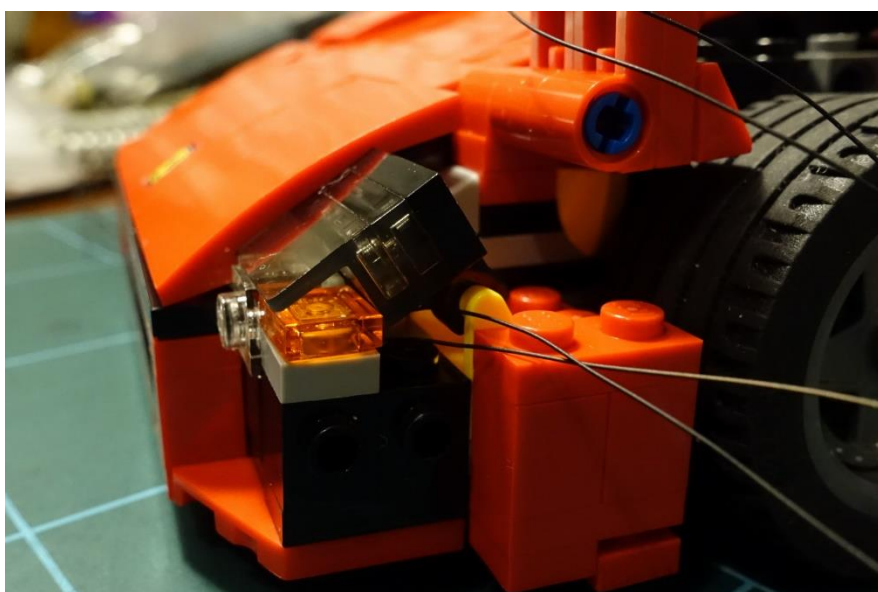

Move the original clear orange tile to the LED if you want

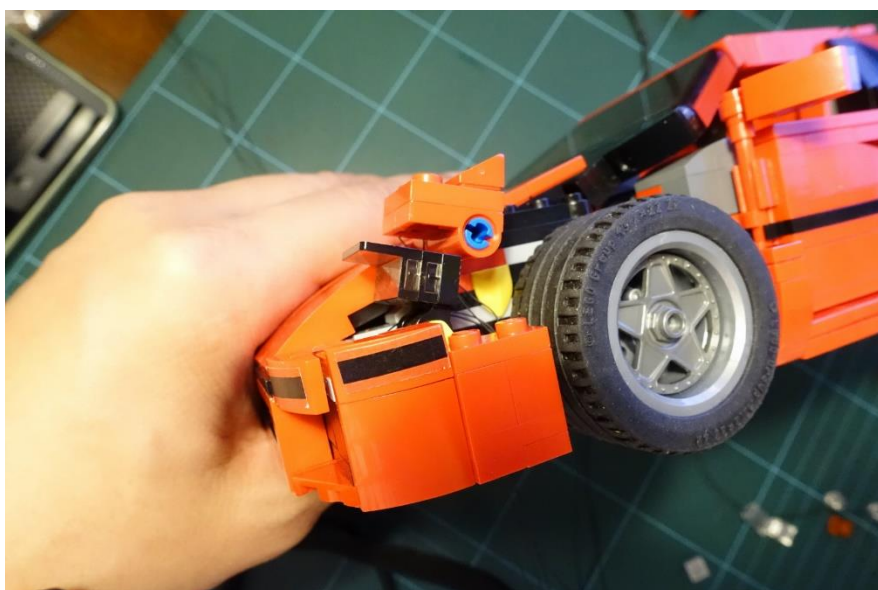

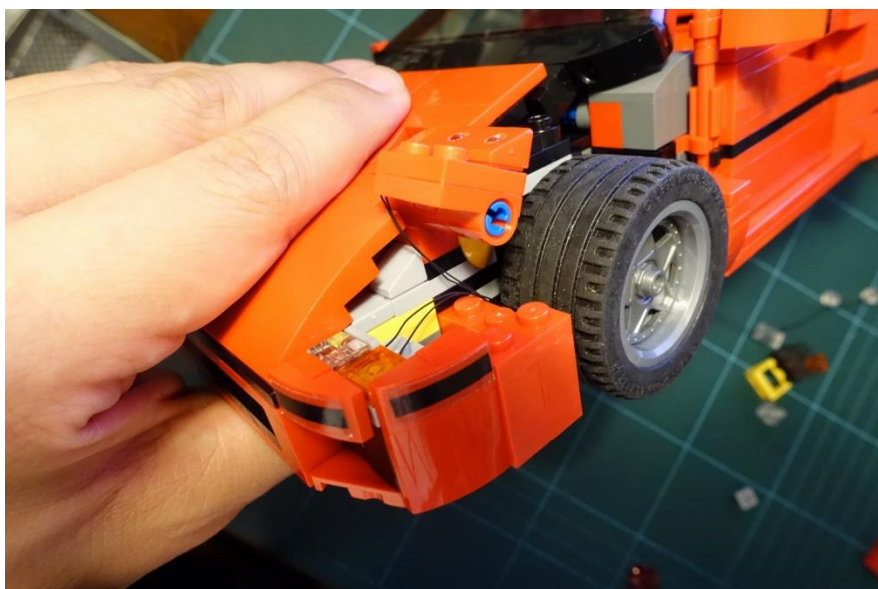

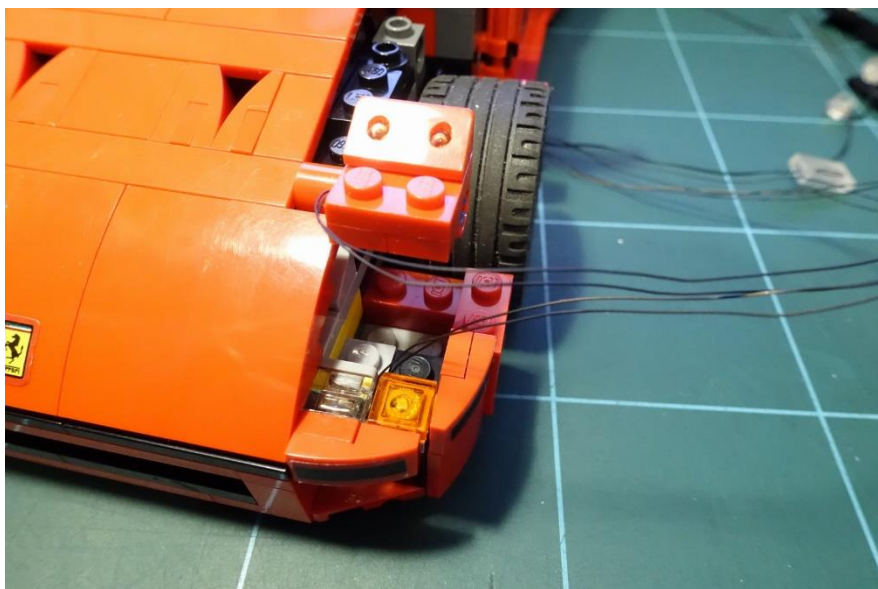

Clear orange brick comes with LED

Replaced by original clear orange tile

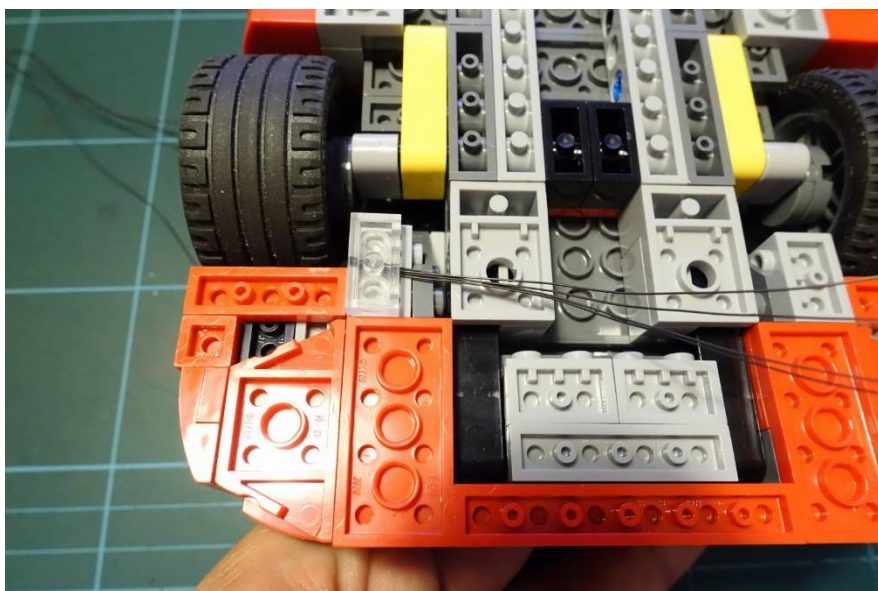

Move both sets of wire from front of the wheel to the bottom of the car

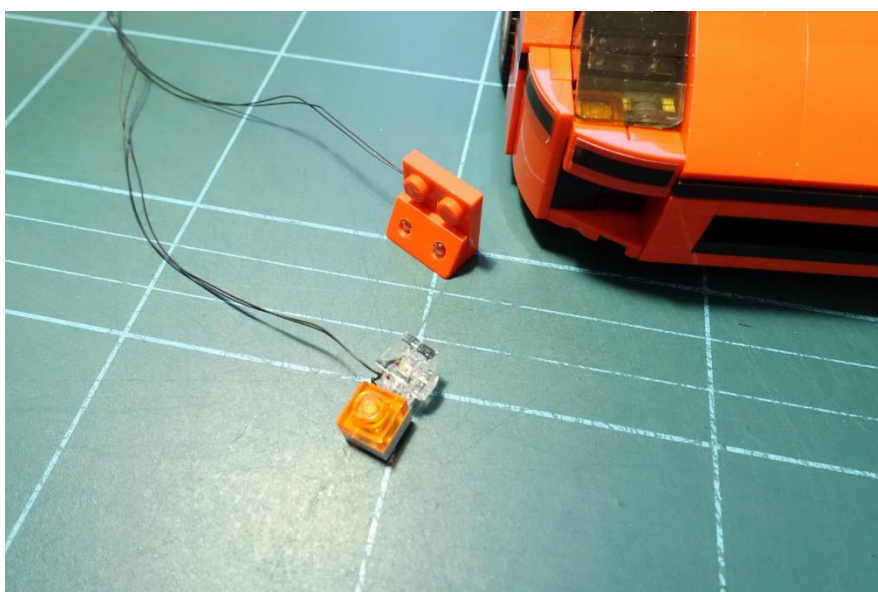

Put the parts back, leave the popup light open

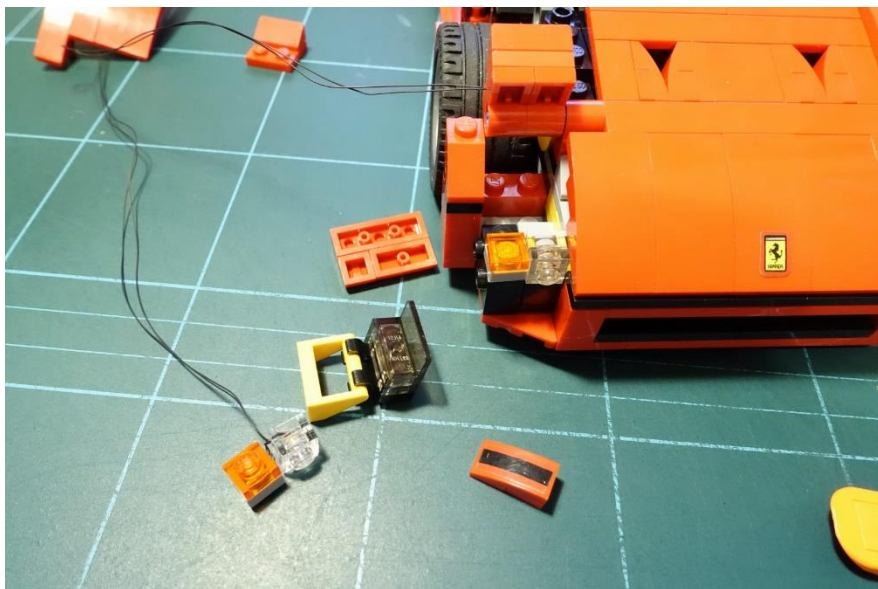

Fix the wire position by the provided clear brick at the bottom

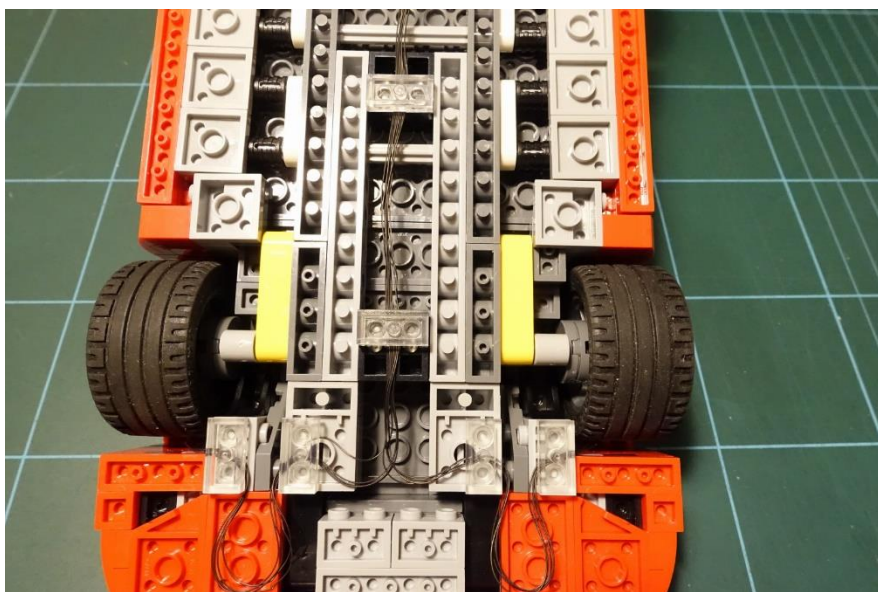

Do the same steps for the other side

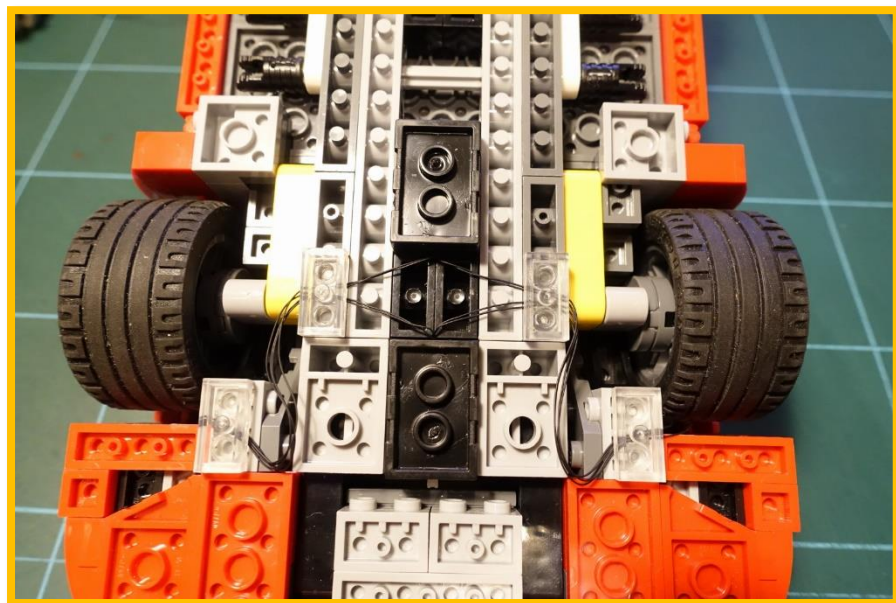

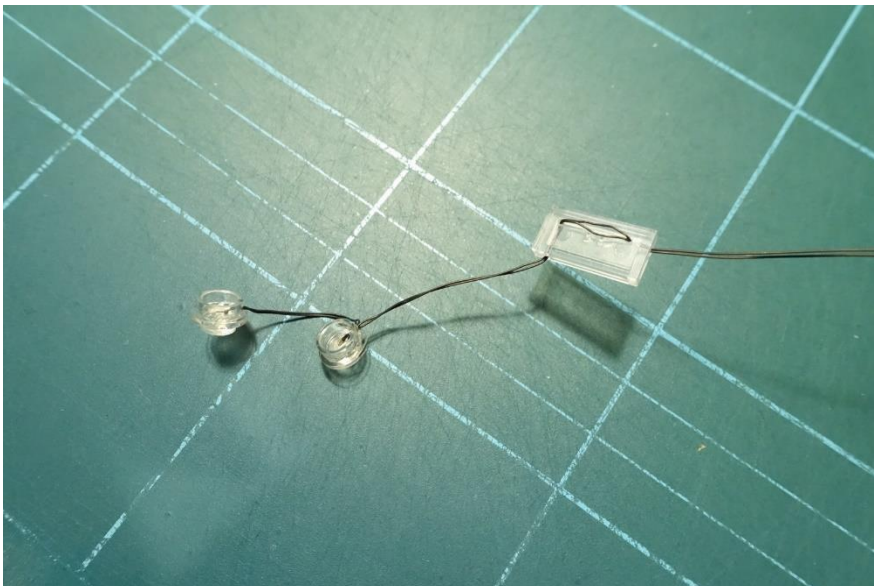

Fix the wire position by more clear bricks

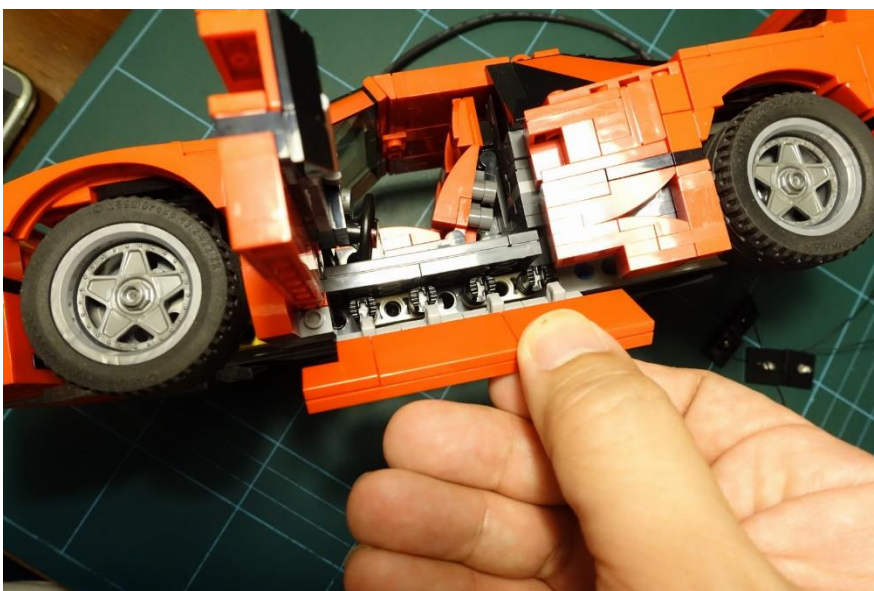

Battery version

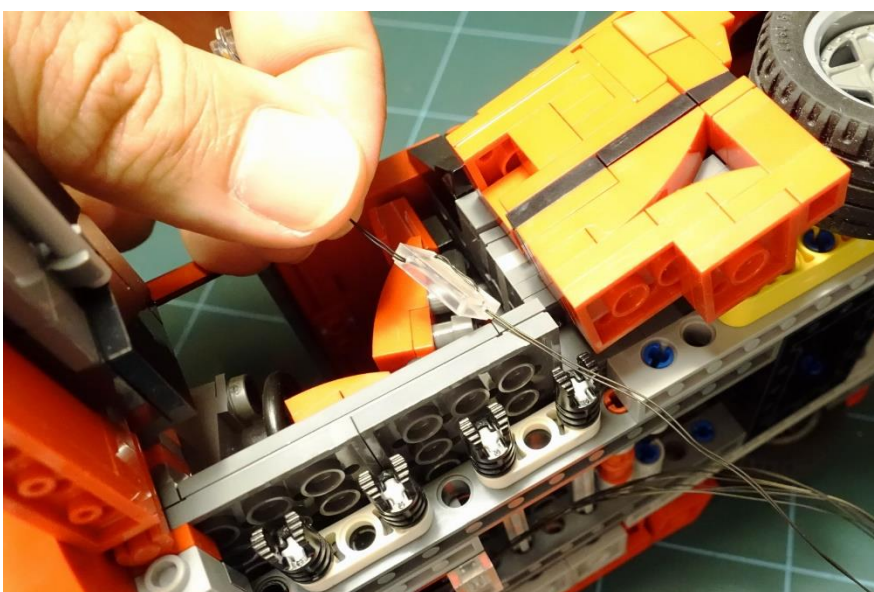

Room lights

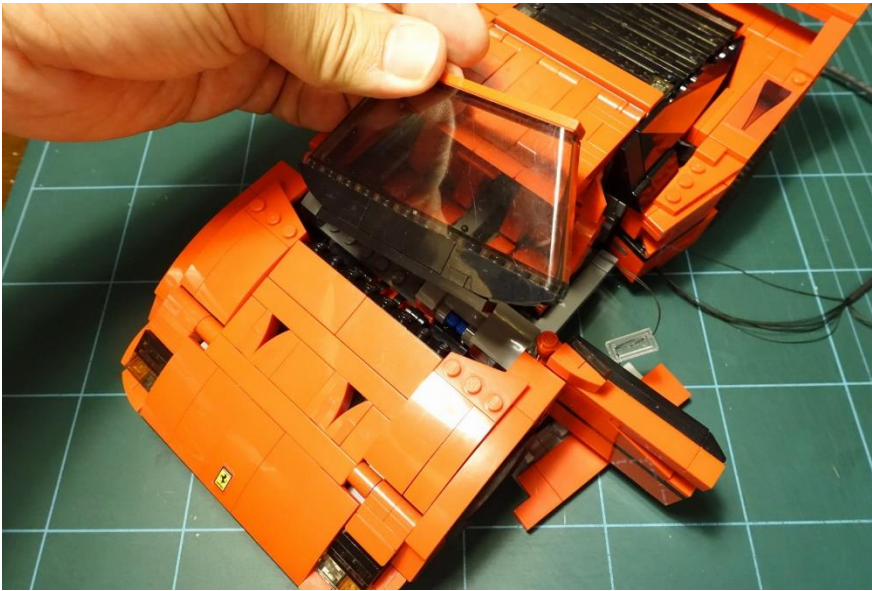

Remove the step board

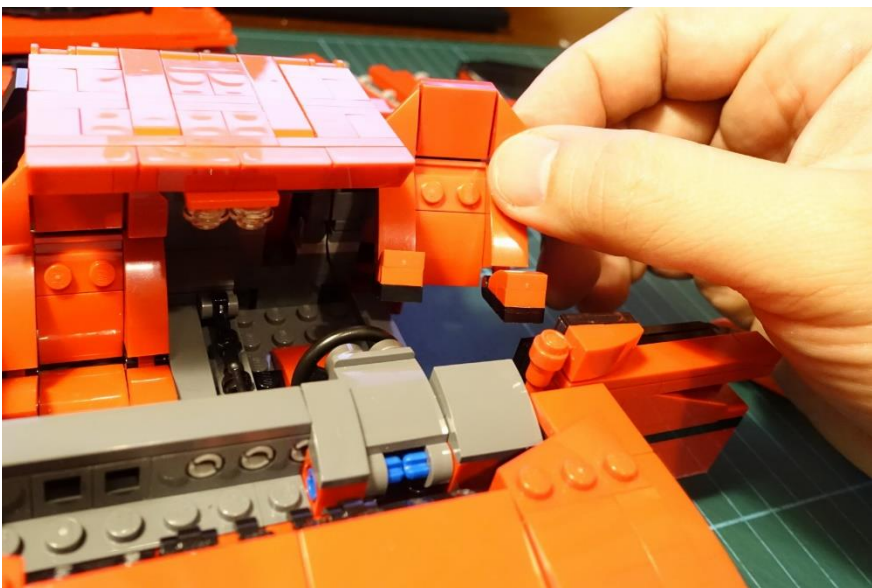

Move the wire to interior through the gap

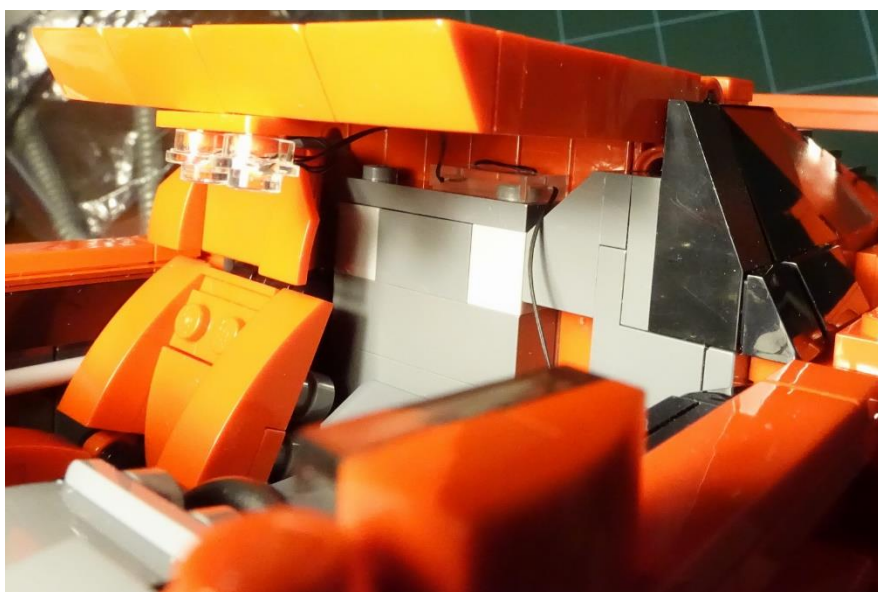

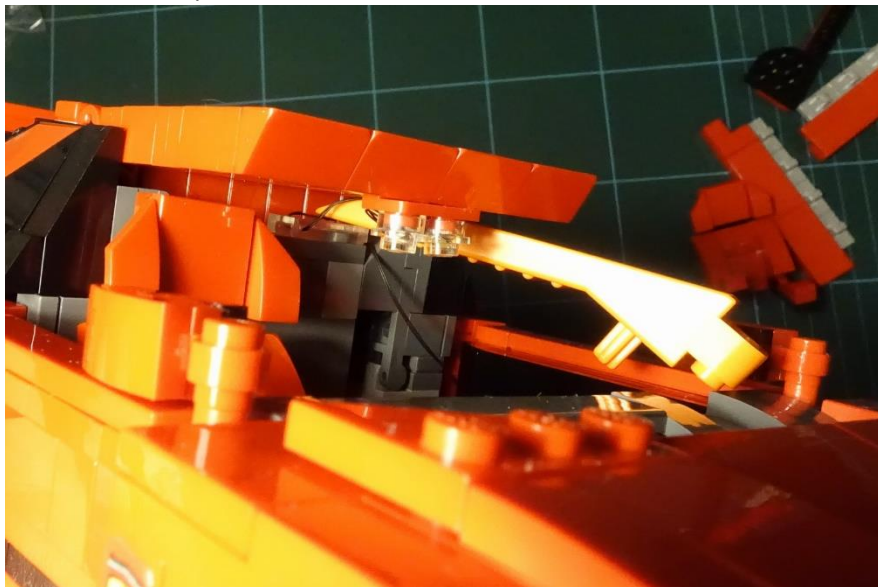

Remove the windscreen

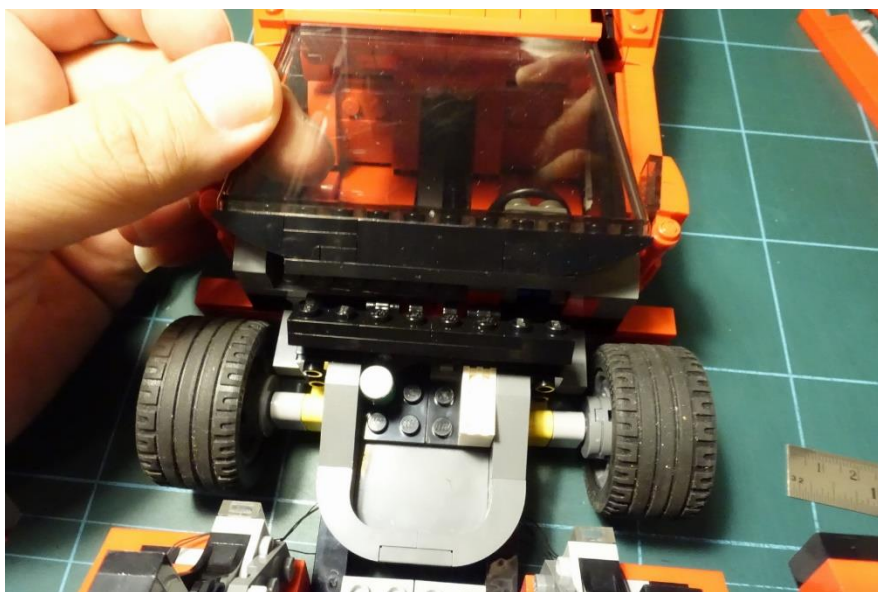

Take out the driver's seat

Use the brick separator to install the tile at the back

Put the seat and windscreen back

Rear lights

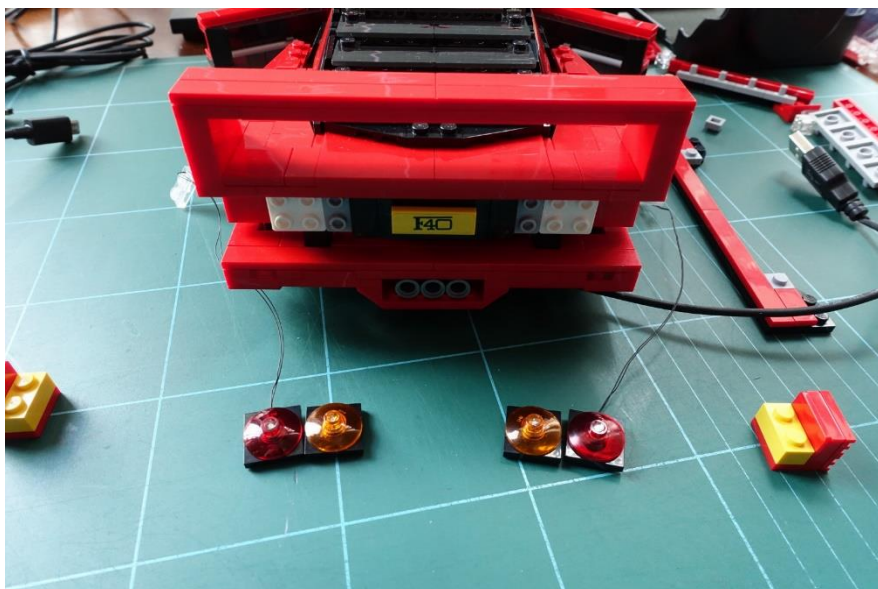

Remove some parts under the light

Take out the rear lights with black plates

Identify the left and right side of rear lights

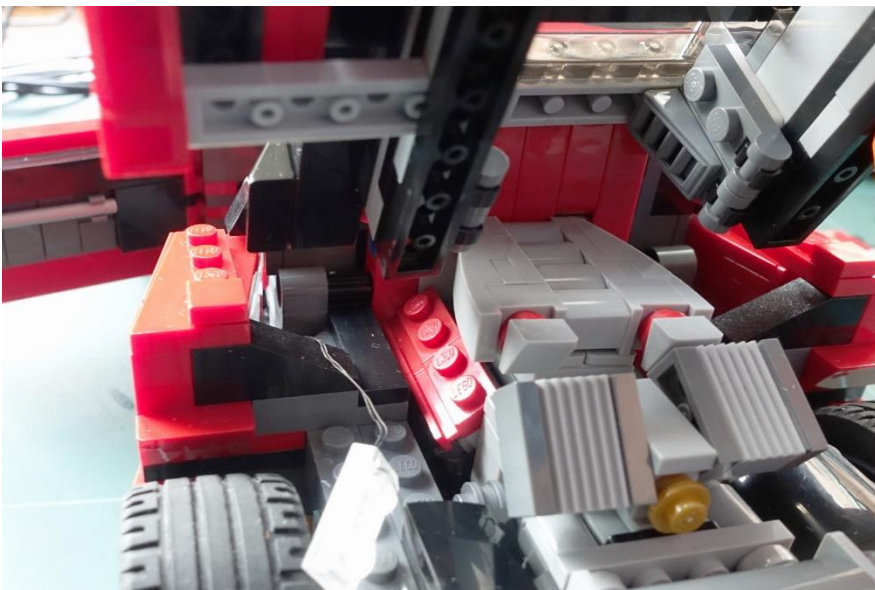

Move the original clear orange dish to the LED if you want (light orange is the original one)

Move the wire to the engine compartment

Install the rear lights, fix the wire by the gray bricks

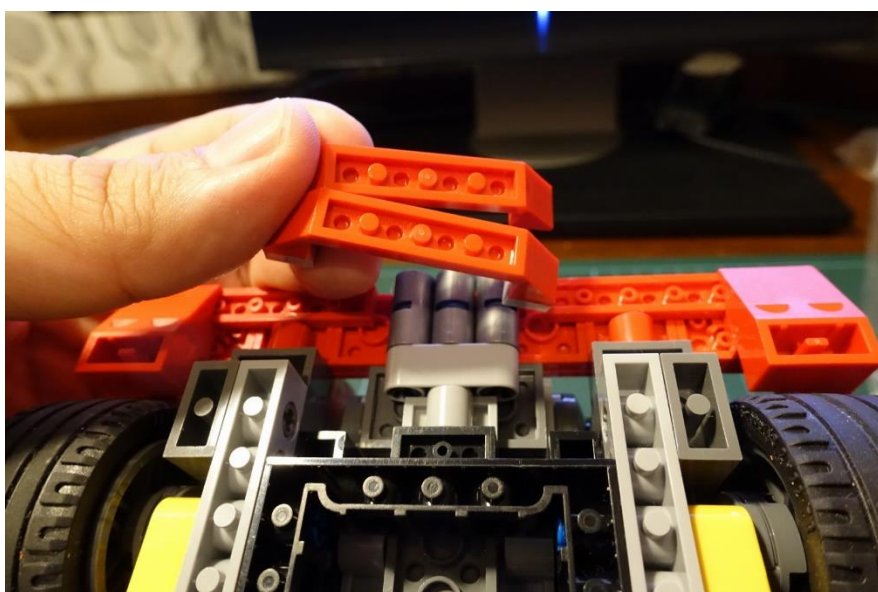

Use the clear brick to fix the wire position beside the engine

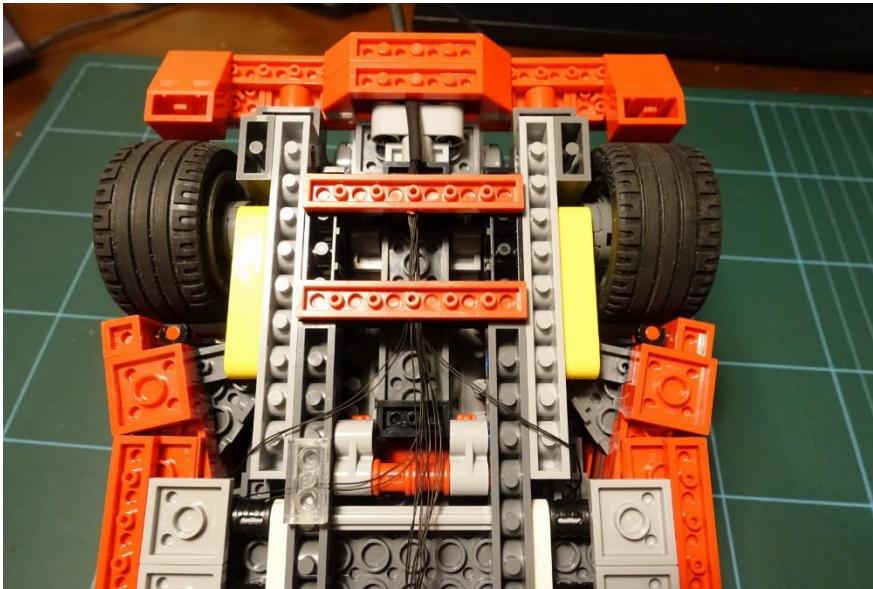

Do the same steps for the other side

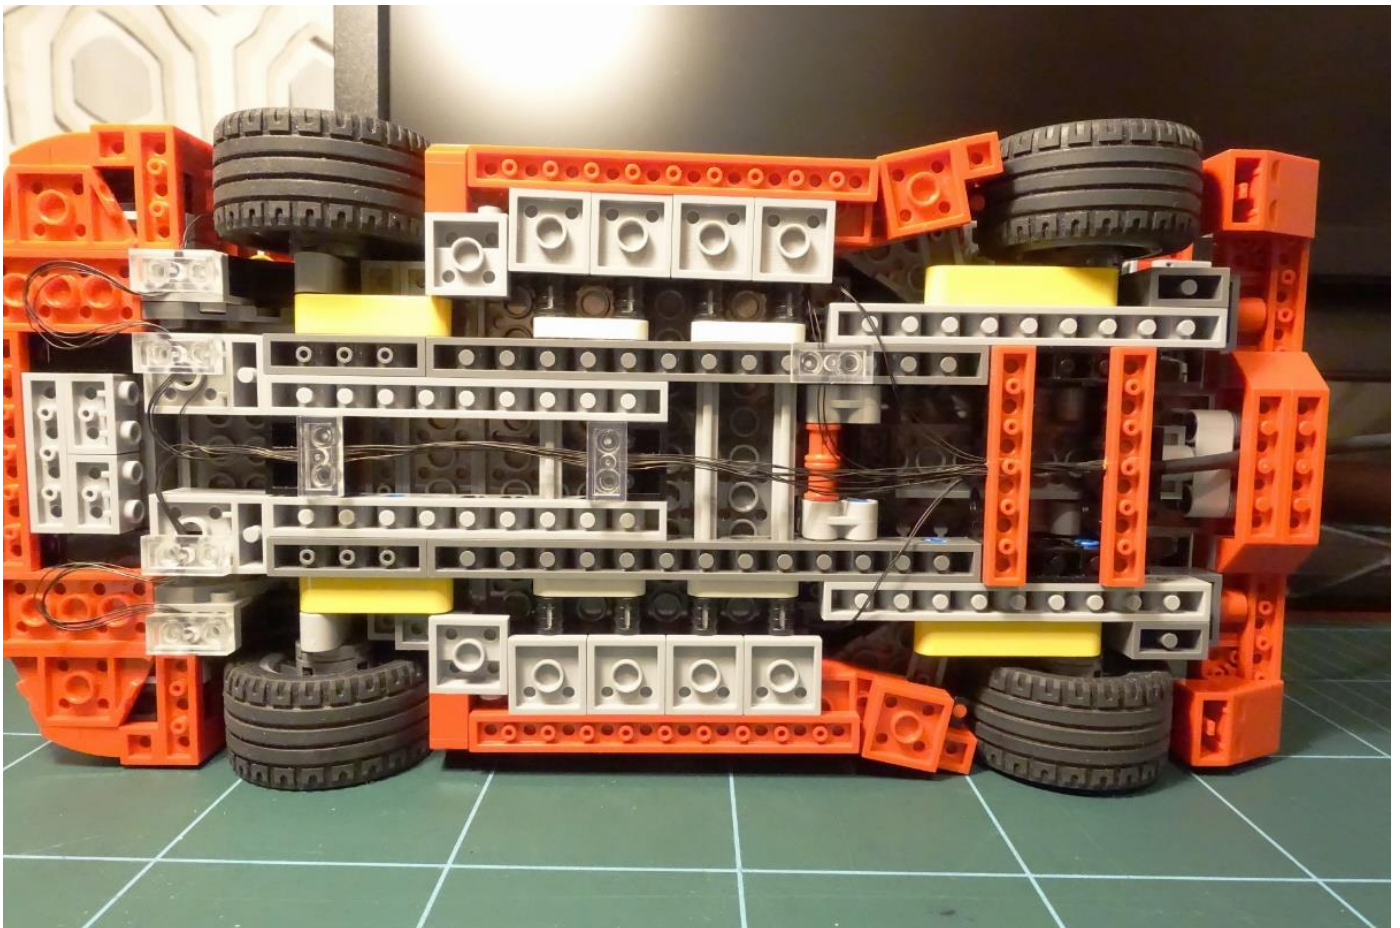

Turn to the bottom, detach the parts round the muffler and put the wire under it

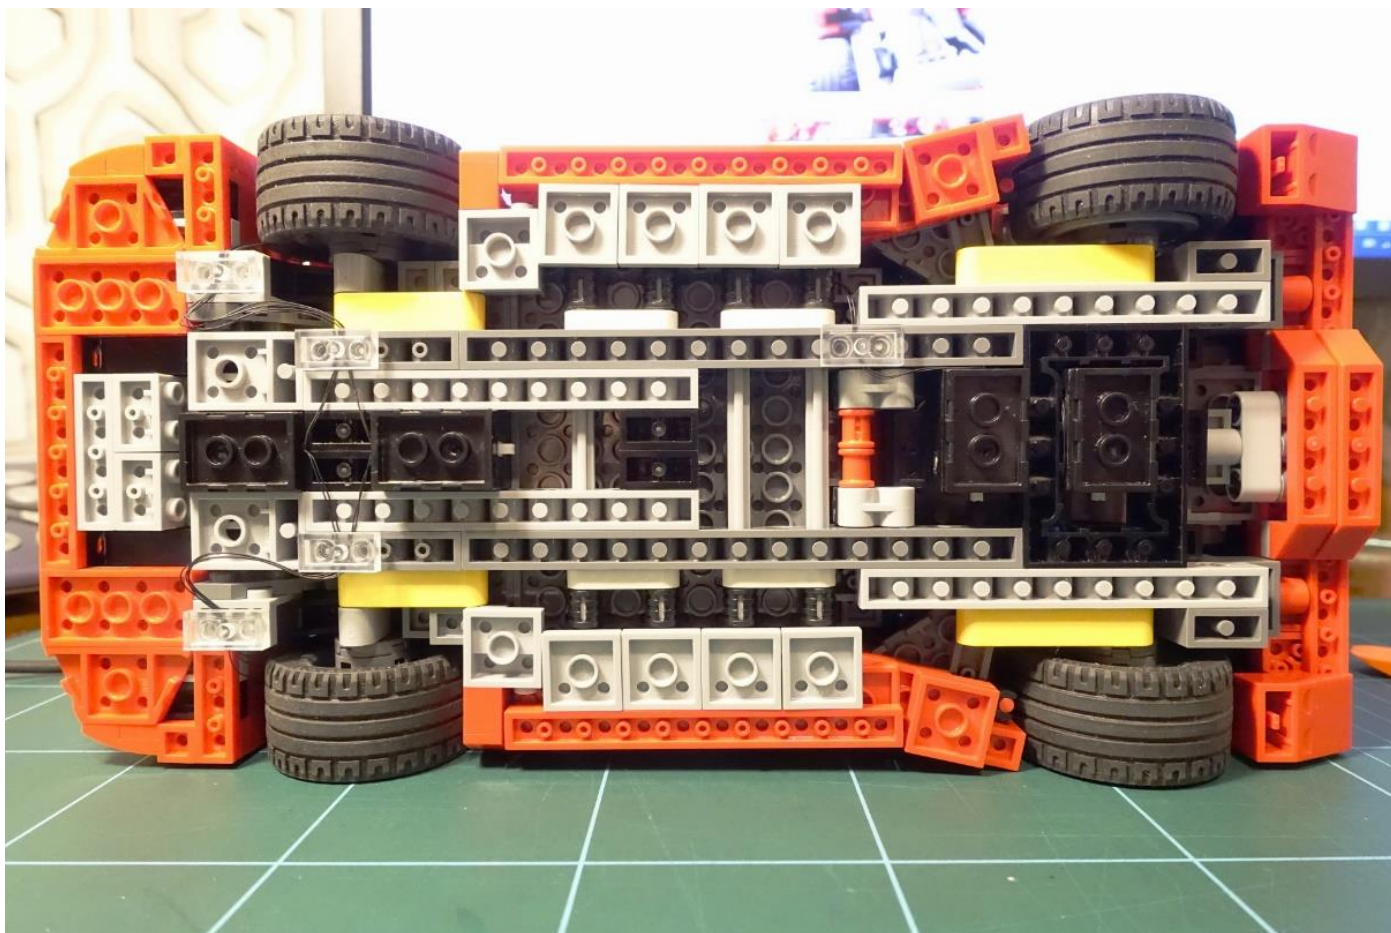

Use the provided red brick to fix the wire

USB version bottom, fix the room light wire by a clear brick

Battery version bottom, fix the room light wire by a clear brick

Done!

